

SLAVERY IN YOUR OWN BACKYARD

Every year, thousands are brought into the United States to be used as slaves. It's estimated that thousands of U.S. citizens are enslaved within our borders.

SLAVES WORK AS:

Domestic servants | Sweatshop workers | Beggars
Restaurant workers | Migrant laborers | Janitors
Hotel or tourist industry workers | Sex slaves

HERE ARE SIGNS THAT SOMEONE MAY BE ENSLAVED

- Unable to leave their job
- Does not control their earnings
- Unable to move freely or is being watched or followed
- Is afraid to speak in the presence of others
- Shows signs of being assaulted
- Passports and other documents have been taken away
- Has been cheated into payment of debt

REPORT WHAT YOU SEE TO THE NATIONAL TRAFFICKING HOTLINE

1 888 3737 888

If you suspect that someone is being enslaved, DON'T INTERVENE. Doing so can prove harmful to the victim and yourself
