

License form For Free the Slaves Images

Name of show/film/website/publication where images will be used:

Images that will be used:

Name, position, contact details of person responsible for following this agreement:

Agreement to license still images/video footage/graphics from Free the Slaves

Our organization acknowledges that Free the Slaves is granting a one-time, non-exclusive license to use the images/footage/graphics described above in the manner described above. Our organization acknowledges that any future use must be approved on an individual basis by Free the Slaves.

Our organization acknowledges that it may not share the images/footage/graphics with others or sell the images/footage to others.

Our organization acknowledges that we will identify that the images/footage/graphics are provided by Free the Slaves and will publish any required photographer credits. Broadcast acknowledgment shall be on-screen as the images are seen. Film acknowledgement shall be in program credits. Website/print publication acknowledgement shall be in captions immediately adjacent to the images.

Our organization agrees to direct the public to www.freetheslaves.net when listing resources for those seeking more information about trafficking and modern slavery.

Our organization will send a professional copy of the publication to Free the Slaves or allow Free the Slaves to embed on its website a link to the finished story, to help spread the word.

Our organization agrees to alert Free the Slaves when the images/footage/graphics will be published so that Free the Slaves can alert the public to watch/read/listen.

Signature

Date